

JUICE RAP NEWS SPECIAL EDITION: Hillary Clinton vs Donald Trump

Howzit my chinas,
you're tuned in to the News World Order,
With me your host Bill de Berg, hard-truths reporter
I heard you're seeking some form of closure, so here's an update as we march deeper into glorious dystopia.

Ja... things have taken a lekker turn hey?
The world's unravelling, tensions rising, sabres rattling.
ISIS up in yo airports, fake economies faltering, immigrants crossing all of your imaginary borders.

And worst of all, you oaks don't even know what's happening
Since Rap News wrapped up, sending you all scrambling,
Now there's no more Robert Foster here to explain
And even Prince and Bowie ascended to another plane.

But don't worry, I've come back to offer some assistance, in a once-off Rap News special edition,
on the year's final tragedy: the US election.
Let's get right down to action, with Hillary Clinton.

-- First Lady in the White House, bitches.
Y'all about to witness the first ever female POTUS
No more dicks, only ovaries up in the Oval Office.
-- Welcome Hillary, what makes you the top pick for voters?

-- Bill, the sad truth of it is we're losing our grip
the current neoliberal order has taken numerous hits, the structure is crumbling and the world is suffering under it, struggling, and now people have had it with the one per cent,

Debt, austerity, all spreading like cancers.
People are hungry for a cure and thirsty for answers,
for a commander who cares instead of one who merely panders...
-- You mean someone like Bernie Sanders?

-- Exactly, that's why we berned his nomination chances with backroom media deals and dirty slanders
Debbie landed one of the most scandalous gerrymanders,
And that's why I'm the top Democratic candidate.

-- Ahh Hillary, such a pro at dealing with Libtard chumps
But will that be enough? Now we meet the c*nt whose rise has left many, including himself stumped:
What makes you the best nominee, Donald Trump?

-- I'm smart, I know words, all the best words:
like, tremendous, terrific and... believe me: all the best words.
But to Make America Great again, we need action:
by bringing back the heydays of racism and fascism

Check my list: incite rabid nationalism; blame our problems on Jews... I mean Muslims and Mexicans;
call on rivals to be killed; or imprisoned;
support the use of torture; especially for my critics;

Also, I'm very rich. Sure I've made some folks homeless,
But not paying employees is how I got this loaded,
The country's just another company, we all know this,

And this is why it's me that needs to be the CEO-TUS.

Coz all I do is win win win, no matter what Got money on my mind I can never get enough
And every time I sound more like the Fuhrer Everybody's hands go up...

And they stay high, and they say 'heil'!

-- You're rated as the most hated candidates in history, Impressive, how did you to achieve this? Hillary?
-- Oh Bill, it's easy when you're a corporate shill like me.
We sold out families to our masters on Wall Street

Now working classes are angry and highly peeved at being betrayed by elites from Ivy Leagues...
-- I agree, that's why they're flying to me,
Il Douche, the strongman they need. Or so they're led to believe.

Actually, this is all a pitch to gain massive attention, promote my next reality show: "Fascist Apprentice"
-- A show about preying on the gullible and defenceless?
-- Correct. And believe me, it'll be tremendous.

-- You stand no chance against my loyal Hillbots despite all my epic fails, from gay-marriage flip-flops to leaked emails, the american people are left with no option but to opt for the lesser evil.

-- Lesser evil? More like a war criminal and a liar probably sold a ton of arms to the Saudis just in the past hour
-- Ha ha ha ha ha ha hahaaaa...
Did I mention that I landed here under sniper fire?

-- Trust me, we're not safe under this vile statist
-- A whole lot safer than under a frickin child rapist.
A small-time dick-tator with a small... -- That's it!
I have BIG hands, look at the size of these hands bitch!

-- Well it's safe to say that, either way, we are guaranteed
the USA will have a great Commander in Grief!
But do you wonder what this debate would be like if it featured true alternatives from the Left and the Right?

Agh let's find out, shall we?

-- Jill Stein for the Greens here spilling some real messages, Hillary's a disgrace to any self-respecting feminist
You want a woman in the White House?
Well, here's one who isn't a corporate sell-out slashing your benefits, one who doesn't bomb kids in the streets, and prop up their oppressors in the Middle East.

or who receives funding from brutal regimes;
supports coups in Honduras then deports refugees!

-- Yo yo yo! Gary Johnson on the mic, wassuuup Republicans, dudes, you need to lighten uuuup
the GOP is over, that's right it's done.
Forget Aleppo, somebody help me light this blunt

Coz first thing I'll do when I'm the Prez is legalise weed and ban Income Tax instead cut the military budget by 43 per cent abolish the IRS and dismantle the Fed.

-- If I'm elected I'ma put an end to all student debt!
Fuck the banks, bail out the next generation
-- Support marriage equality, embrace immigration, so I can get blazed with everyone of all nations

-- Honestly, forget these lofty sermons 'n dreams the only person with serious policies is Vermin Supreme Working a scheme to fight the Zombie apocalypse
Who else will be ready when the monsters stomp ya metropolis?

Then I'll solve the whole energy crisis by putting them zombies on giant hamster-wheel devices, Defeat ISIS with daily glitter bombing and kill baby Hitler with time-travel technology

My tooth-brushing laws are a special development
Get you're shiney smiling teeth looking very excellent It's time for the first glitter wizard President vote for me n there'll be free ponies for All Americans

-- I'm a doctor, here's some free medical wisdom we need to fix the cancer of this two-party prison
-- It's the only way to cure this sick political system,
-- So America... Vote your conscience, this election!

-- Thanks third-party candidates, that may be so.
Sadly though, we control the media, which means we can block you from the show and most voters will never know the better options that you offer to the status quo.

So if you're content with the lesser evil: Vote Hillary!
It'll fan the very flames of discontent that are fuelling fascist sentiments; and personally I can't wait to see, how much more threatening the next Trump will be.

Or fuck it, vote Trump, if you're really feeling courageous!
I've always wanted to try living in The Dark Ages:
ja kids; it's great to witness history in the making,
but watching it repeat, is even more entertaining.

Or maybe you'll surprise me and see the light:
By building a movement that truly unites Left and Right,
Re-includes the disenfranchised in the nation's life
And declares war on your common enemy: corporate might.

I'll be back next election, sisters and brothers, assuming of course that there will even be another to discover which history you'll choose to write.
Till then: Bill de Berg, for Rap News, goodnight.
