

Rap News 5 - The News World Order

Lyrics by Hugo Farrant & Giordano Nanni

Good evening, Rap News is back this week on the back of yet another massive leaking which lays bare and paints a clear picture of the actual dealings and reality of operation Iraqi freedom

It`s been Seven years of that illegal invasion which has claimed A million iraqi people the leaping toll of casualties and images from abu ghraib of rape, kidnappings, beatings

As hawks now have their eyes fixed on Iran We analyse the man behind that original plan and these very events presenting our first guest Donald Rumsfeld, Secretary of Offense

Mr Rumsfeld, hi there, welcome down to the station in light of this revelation How do you feel now about the invasion?
This isn`t new information and it was liberation Iraqis are now free to play soccer and playstation

what about abu ghraib, and the allegations Not just of humiliation, but savage raping
My actual statement is the military In the killing scene is at liberty to blow off a little steam

if you remember the Iraqis had WMD doesn`t it trouble you that you failed find any?
well steady, I never said Iraq had weapons you know yes you did! You said that exact fact a second ago you know, there`s things we know and things we don`t know and the knowns we know we know are known as Known knowns Things we know we don`t know which are known as no no`s

Among the knowns and the no no`s we know go with the don`t knows

I dunno, intelligence was distorted and cynical scorned and ridiculed, support for your war was minimal won`t history judge you as a war criminal?
We`ll write the books, they won`t be at all critical

This interview`s over, general Take him away he`s pitiful With pleasure, now to shut Rap News down forever

Alright, kill the live feed, bring the light beam
This is News World Order, I`m Bill O`Reilly Resuming entirely regular broadcasts of news

For unbiased fair broad and balanced views

Now my guest is a true American hero
Donald; Bill, good to finally get on a real show
So how`'s the united states of iraq in the last quarter Well, our crack forces hand in hand with blackwater

Have forged ahead creating an idyllic state
That we`ll hand over to whoever`s left at the end
The number of people in the middle east Opposed to democracy has swiftly decreased

Yeah, by like a million at least since two thousand and three
That`s a million more people, who are now blissfully in peace And Wikileaks?
Bill please don`t get me started on those frickin cybergeeks

What gets me is these hippies keep criticising the military when the military keeps em living free From tyrrany, terrorists, and nuclear bomb threats They seem to have a military industrial complex and this Julian Assange makes his foolish demands As the blood of afghans pools in his hands

A lot of people are saying he`s ruled by his glands
That He kidnapped schoolgirls and abused em in Icelandc

But now a word from our sponsor, we`ll be back pretty fast
With the former secretary of kickin ass

Why see shades of gray
why be a loner?
try another Soma
Soma™
Life`s good, shut up!™

Alright we`re back in the no spine zone
News World Order live in your mobile home
So , rummy, Bradley Manning..
Bradley Manning, man I`m glad we grabbed him we`re gonna Black bag him, tag him, pack that homo away Let`s see him hack his way out of Guantanamo bay

You know what you ought to do?
enhanced interrogation... wait there`s a problem with my autocue

What`s that? `Sorry Bill we have to interrupt?`
it just says`you`ve been wanked` - stupid thing is stuck Wank you say? I remember that from the Nasa days, Bill, you`ve been hacked I`m afraid

Hacked? Fuck it, we`ll do it live Fucking thing sucks, We`ll do it live

Wank only one man would use slang this way it has to be Julian Assange - g`day gentlemen, hey?

I couldn` t help noticing you mentioned my name Assange, how the hell` d you get in the frame?
A simple hack, you left the back door open again
We` ll hack off your hands, leave you rollng in pain

I thought we controlled this whole station
Our signal`s being jammed from an undisclosed location
You telling me you can` t even get that fag?
He`s somewhere North south east or west of baghdad

Bill O` reilly, for dangerous defiance of reason And betrayal of journalism, I now try you for treason Shut up you just leak crap! You` re dead!
I think you` ll find it`s you that leaks crap and is dead

What`s happening to his head?
it`s leaking every single bit of crap he`s ever said we` ll get you Assange, and your little site too but a thousand other sites will creep up behind you

I` m an avalanche! they didn` t stand a chance Against my battle plans, Robert, here have your channel back apologies for the apalling violence Julian? you look different. These days I can afford a stylist

Now The enemies of truth will cower
Before the avenging Assangel, and my brutal power
With the hammer of Tor, I will leap forth Crush the imposters – I couldn` t agree more

Ah! What`s going on here? I think you know Is that Julian Assange, yes it is, Hello Pfft Look at his hair, everyone knows it`s white
This isn` t Assange, it`s some loser with low lights

Now get outta here you fake Assange it`s
Time for me to leak the true fate of Atlantis No, it`s time to find out who the heck this is Terrence Moonseed! Gah, you pesky kids

Well, I think it`s time to end this session
It seems, journalism`s become a dangerous profession
Risking ostracism extradition To provide a clear picture of the world we live in but without truth, history will certainly repeat The same wars, in this time of universal deceit,

Telling the truth has become a revolutionary act
So I salute those who disclose the necessary facts.
