

Rap News 6 – Cablegate

by Giordano Nanni and Hugo Farrant

Good morning, this is a Juice News call out In the wake of Cable Gate and the subsequent fall-out balls out revelations, observations of diplomats giving actual confirmation of hidden facts spilling backroom deals, leaking leaders' chit chat money laundering and spits and spats:

The picture that emerges, provided by the servers shines light further behind the wire curtain,

Certainly this has divided views of the populace
Some say it's obvious 'nothing new in these documents'
Others say it's ominous, and applaud the revelations Others still call for the messenger's assassination

Following Assange's arrest, and calls for his head, Over nine 9000 counterattacks on all of the web,
The state department being forced to defend Spying at the UN and a secret war in Yemen

Despite DDOS attacks on Wikileaks' system Day by day cables still spray through mirror reflection Will cable gate change the game or lead to repression?
We get face-to-face with Hillary Clinton

Hillary Clinton, how does it feel to get leaked on?
It's scandalous, this is a case of high treason
Its against the land of the brave and divine freedom –
We're the good guys for democracy, we fight evil

And we've waged peace around the world, proud of the flag
These leaks could devalue this powerful brand Bring military operations straight to a halt
Our shareholders, clients and partners would plainly revolt

But aren't you beholden to the American Public?
And isn't the US one of the primary culprits,
In overthrowing governments?
Such as? Chile, Iran, Nicaragua?

Please, stop with the drama!

The American People are our employees Whose taxes fund the wars that support our schemes
Their kids become troops we send overseas
In return for mega malls and the American dream

And if our client states don't like the things that we do We install a dictator with a CIA coup
In foreign relations, subversion's the method we use Wikileaks threaten this system so it's a terrorist group

But the people of the world seem to generally approve of Wikileaks' actions in spilling the truth...
They do? Well, then, they're terrorists too!
Dissentors are traitors, as history proves

And they always lose. That's curious, some of our greatest heroes were persecuted for this reason. Who? Mandela, Ghandi, ...Jesus Ah hahaha! Ahhh... you idealists.

Now for a different view, prisonplanet host, Alex Jones. Sheeple, heed the megaphone,
This Assange has apparently shown
The emperor on the palace throne grabbing at clothes

But I've heard anecdotes, I'll show that it fits
This Patsy's a triple agent for the globalists
He claims openness, but he's actually a catalyst
For the one world government of the commie nazi fascists

Robert, I'm getting paranoid, I need to state
This is a false flag attack to bring in a police state
A cyber 9-11, that's the secret vision
Right now they're debriefing Julian in a British prison

So Wikileaks is an inside job? They're hidin' the thruth
To distract from the climate deal in Cancun
You try and do my job without hiding something I aint called the SECRETary of State for nothing.

But surely, now the leaks are exposed out on the stage

You'd expect the world's leaders to be outraged
By the spying, lies, emerging charges
Now on the line it's Colonel Gadaffi

Asalamalekum, alekumasalam
Are you outraged? Well, now that there's a muslim Brother President of US, we expected secrets to be kept, but now we have to keep abreast

Of these.. huge... security leaks.
Obama must get firm grip on Wiki tits Er.. ok, how about you Mr Berlusconi, will your reputation fall more in this pandemonium?

Ma Roberto! Gli italiani mi amano come bambini E glielo metto in culo come mussolini
The American flag is symbol global of liberty And I love Hillary... though she's a bit too old for me

By the way, Robert, how much for your news show?
I pay cash; (puff puff) I just got some Rubles Sorry, Silvio, we have scruples, it's not for sale Va bo, Hillary, come have a cigar at the hotel

Well, Hillary it appears that the leaders Are not that outraged. Ha! Are you serious?
Of course not. We're one happy family tree, son
As you'll see soon when we hang Assange for treason

Treason? could an Australian ever stand trial?
Ah! Australia's in the American Empire!
We have puppet states, franchisees, subsidiaries, Provided they obey they're guaranteed liberty

We're not letting Assange get out of our grip
You know how hard it was to plant a condom that split?
Hill, ya turd, your Bilderberg lies are blatant
But wait, Alex, where's your evidence that Assange is an agent?

Well, obviously this is a globalist psi-ops plot designed to keep us in the dark

they're climbin in your windows They're snatchin your income tax tryna enslave you so y'all need to hide your kids, hide your wife buy a gun , buy a knife watch my show, buy your gold and buy your silver cuz they enslavin errbody out here

we don't have to look for no facts We know this is true ... they gon chip you they gon tag you but we can run and yell that, run and yell that run and yell that! New World
*New world order!

We got his IP he done left data discs and all he is so done
he is really going—on trial
But what is Assange guilty of?
I was molested by Julian in the Stockholm

So done, so done, so done, so

Ok, It's almost time to end for the day
But until we meet again, a few questions remain Is Wikileaks really the greatest threat that we face?
Or is it the response we are seeing in defense of the state?

A response which is building and seeks To turn back the clock on freedom of speech And fundamental rights earned over a century
This should ring alarm bells for all who know their history

From this evidence, are we neglecting our memory
And repeating the trajectory of the twentieth century?
And if so, upon seeing the facts
But ceasing to act, don't we deserve the leaders we have?

What needs to befall before we open the door and yell "I'm mad as hell and I'm not gonna take it anymore!"?
Or shall we sit waiting for messiahs or aliens,
Or a super-hero, if they're not all one and the same meme?

History, dear viewers, is happening
Will we ever get a similar chance again?
History books will be written about events this month
The story they will tell, is up to us.
